Julie Ludwick, Secretary

Shan Ru Lin, Communications Chair

Other attendees

Lydia Bruhn

Kerry Haslett

Programs

Makiko's program - scheduled for May 2nd 7-9 pm central time. We are in need of items to be able to publicize this event. Looking like we need to postpone. Will reach out to Makiko with items needed and deadlines.

June Sumi Ink event.

- Flyer is made and approved for the flyer. and a cap of 12 people max. Date, June 22nd 9:30-12:30. $65 non members and $55 IATA members, and registration is open, marketing is happening.

Community art making/gathering on April 13th at Erin's space in Hinsdale, IL.

-6 people total, including Erin, were in attendance. Julie will contact attendees interested in IATA membership for follow up on that.

Governmental Affairs

We drafted an update on the website about the status of the bill and not moving forward I am drafting a revised email looking for support for a bill from our membership and testimony.

Communications

For job postings: include wording of art therapy in order to post for job posts.

We had an inquiry into asking to do an event on narrative writing, so Shan will write them back stating that we can share the event once they have a formal plan/proposal and explain the filming/documenting part of it.

Treasurer

We paid our taxes through AATA.

Social Media

-been making posts and flyers about upcoming programs.

President

SAIC chat with students - the discussion went well, we discussed membership with IATA and about where we are at with licensing.

Adler student rep - Blair

Adler IATA visit went very well, good feedback from students.

Julie motions to adjourn the meeting at 8:15.

Shan seconds at 8:15.

Meeting ends at 8:15 pm.
