• In connection with the IATA Secretary, Web Manager, Publications Committee, and Student Representatives, promote programs in a timely and intentional manner via email marketing and social networking channels.

• As applicable, ensure that a reasonable number of programs will offer CEUs to attendants. Arrange for CEU approval by applying to IMHCA at least 6 weeks ahead of program, preparing and managing all required documents (e.g., specifically-formatted program evaluations and sign-in sheets), and sending in all follow-up materials within the time period specified by IMHCA.

• Manage (or delegate the management of) pre-registration, when applicable, by confirming receipt of all pre-registration emails and/or Paypal receipt, collecting necessary information from registrants requesting CEUs, tracking pre-registration tally on a spreadsheet, and otherwise managing the IATA Programs email account.

• Arrange for and assist with the successful completion of day-of programming tasks, including: purchasing and setting up food, preparing/bringing all relevant day-of documents (e.g. photo releases, CEU sign-in sheet, pre-registration spreadsheet, appropriate signage), setting up program space and materials, registering and checking-in guests, handling the cash box, assisting with presenter and participant needs throughout the program, and breaking down / cleaning up the program space.

• Arrange for the ethical and consensual documentation of each program via photographs, film, and a follow-up blog post on the IATA website. Coordinate the storage of such documentation with IATA Archives Chair.

• Work closely with the IATA Treasurer to organize the documented and responsible exchange of money for items such as refreshments, art supplies, presenter stipends, etc. Seek reimbursement and arrange for day-of registration funds to be safely delivered to IATA Treasurer’s home.

• Seek and be open to feedback from the IATA Community with regard to requested programs/topics and/or quality of organized programming.

• Manage the IATA Programs Binder with copies of promotional materials, email exchanges, budgets, evaluations, photo releases, etc.

• Manage IATA’s CEU Binder with program applications, CE Approval letters, sign-in sheets, evaluation summaries, etc.

• Represent IATA in a professional, positive light at all times in communicating with potential presenters and host sites.

• Create and submit for approval a budget for the coming Programs year based on the previous year’s financial status.

Approximate Time Commitment Per Week: 2 hours per week. More hours required leading up to, during, and immediately following large programs.
